

Global Enterprise Experience Contest Rules

1. The team must submit its report in electronic format by email to deb@geebiz.org by 01:00 (GMT) on the last day of the contest.
2. The team chooses which member will submit the report.
3. The report is to be written in English. It is to be presented in PDF, Word, Excel or PowerPoint.
4. The report is to include a cover page plus no more than six A4 pages with at least 2cm margins on all sides. No page allowance is provided for appendices.
5. The cover page must state the team name and number, the team members who contributed to the project and their countries.
6. Each individual is expected to separately send a one page journal that shares their insights and learning from the experience to deb@geebiz.org by 01:00 (GMT) on the last day of the contest.
7. To be eligible for the team prize, individuals must be acknowledged as contributing to the team's project on the cover page, and have sent their personal journal by the deadline.
8. In signing up for this contest, individuals commit to fully supporting their team's efforts. This means meeting the expectations of the group on contributing and communicating. It is recognised that sometimes there are difficulties such as an illness, computer access problems or exams. Please share these issues with your team and seek their support and understanding.
